BHSF joins GRiD to keep up to date on best practice

BHSF joins the growing number of companies this year to join GRiD, the trade body for the group risk industry.

Brian Hall, Chief Commercial Officer at BHSF said, "We have a growing presence in the group risk market. And, as with all areas of business, it's imperative to stay fully up to date with the latest thinking, research and best practice; GRiD provides the avenue for us to do just that."

Members of GRiD get exclusive access to specialist working groups, research, leaders in the industry, networking opportunities as well as support in influencing policy making.

Lee Lovett, chairman of GRiD said, "All our members join for different reasons, be they re-insurers, insurers or intermediaries, but they all get the same support, and they all comment on the value they get from access to our experts, the latest thinking and current developments. We very much welcome BHSF and look forward to working together."

Companies can find out more about joining GRiD here.

About GRiD

Group Risk Development (GRiD) is the industry body for the group risk protection sector, promoting the value to UK businesses of providing financial protection for their staff, enhancing their wellbeing and improving employee engagement. Our membership includes insurers, reinsurers and intermediaries who have a collective wealth of experience built over years of operating in the group risk protection market. Under the chairmanship of Lee Lovett, CEO of Ellipse, GRiD aims to promote group risk through a collective voice to Government, policymakers, stakeholders and employers.

GRiD works with government departments and regulators involved in legislation and regulation affecting group risk benefits, and with other organisations involved in the benefits and financial protection arenas. GRiD also seeks to enhance the industry's standing by encouraging best practice and by participating in industry-wide initiatives such as the professional qualification in group risk managed jointly with the Chartered Insurance Institute.

GRiD's media activity aims to generate a wider awareness and understanding of group risk products and their benefits for employers and employees.

GRiD's dedicated spokesperson, Katharine Moxham, provides expert media comment on a full range of group risk issues.
